Preface

As time goes by, memories fade into the past and are forgotten. We have designed our '51 Medley that you might bring back some of those forgotten memories of the best years of your life, those years spent at Danville High. We are taking you back to that whirl of teen-age activity at D.H.S. As you enter the building you meet our faculty, the teachers who instilled in us a yearning for knowledge. You meet behind-the-scenes workers; you take a glimpse into each organization in the month of the year we thought it was most outstanding. Homecoming was in November, Moments Musical in March. We left the classes to the month of June, at which time they prepare to move up a notch. We know this is an entirely different theme for a yearbook, but that's what we wanted! We hope that it accomplishes its purpose. We hope you like it!

—THE EDITOR.

Dedication

We, the MEDLEY staff of 1951, gratefully acknowledge the faithful service and friendship of Miss Dolpha Parker and Miss Edith Markley, who have completed their teaching careers, by dedicating this forty-eighth volume of THE MEDLEY to them.

Miss Dolpha Parker came to Danville High School in the fall of 1917. She has served as the head of the Home Economics department and the past few years has been a guidance counselor for freshman girls. Every girl who has been closely associated with her fully appreciates her sweet smile and her charming personality. Miss Parker will be greatly missed at D.H.S.

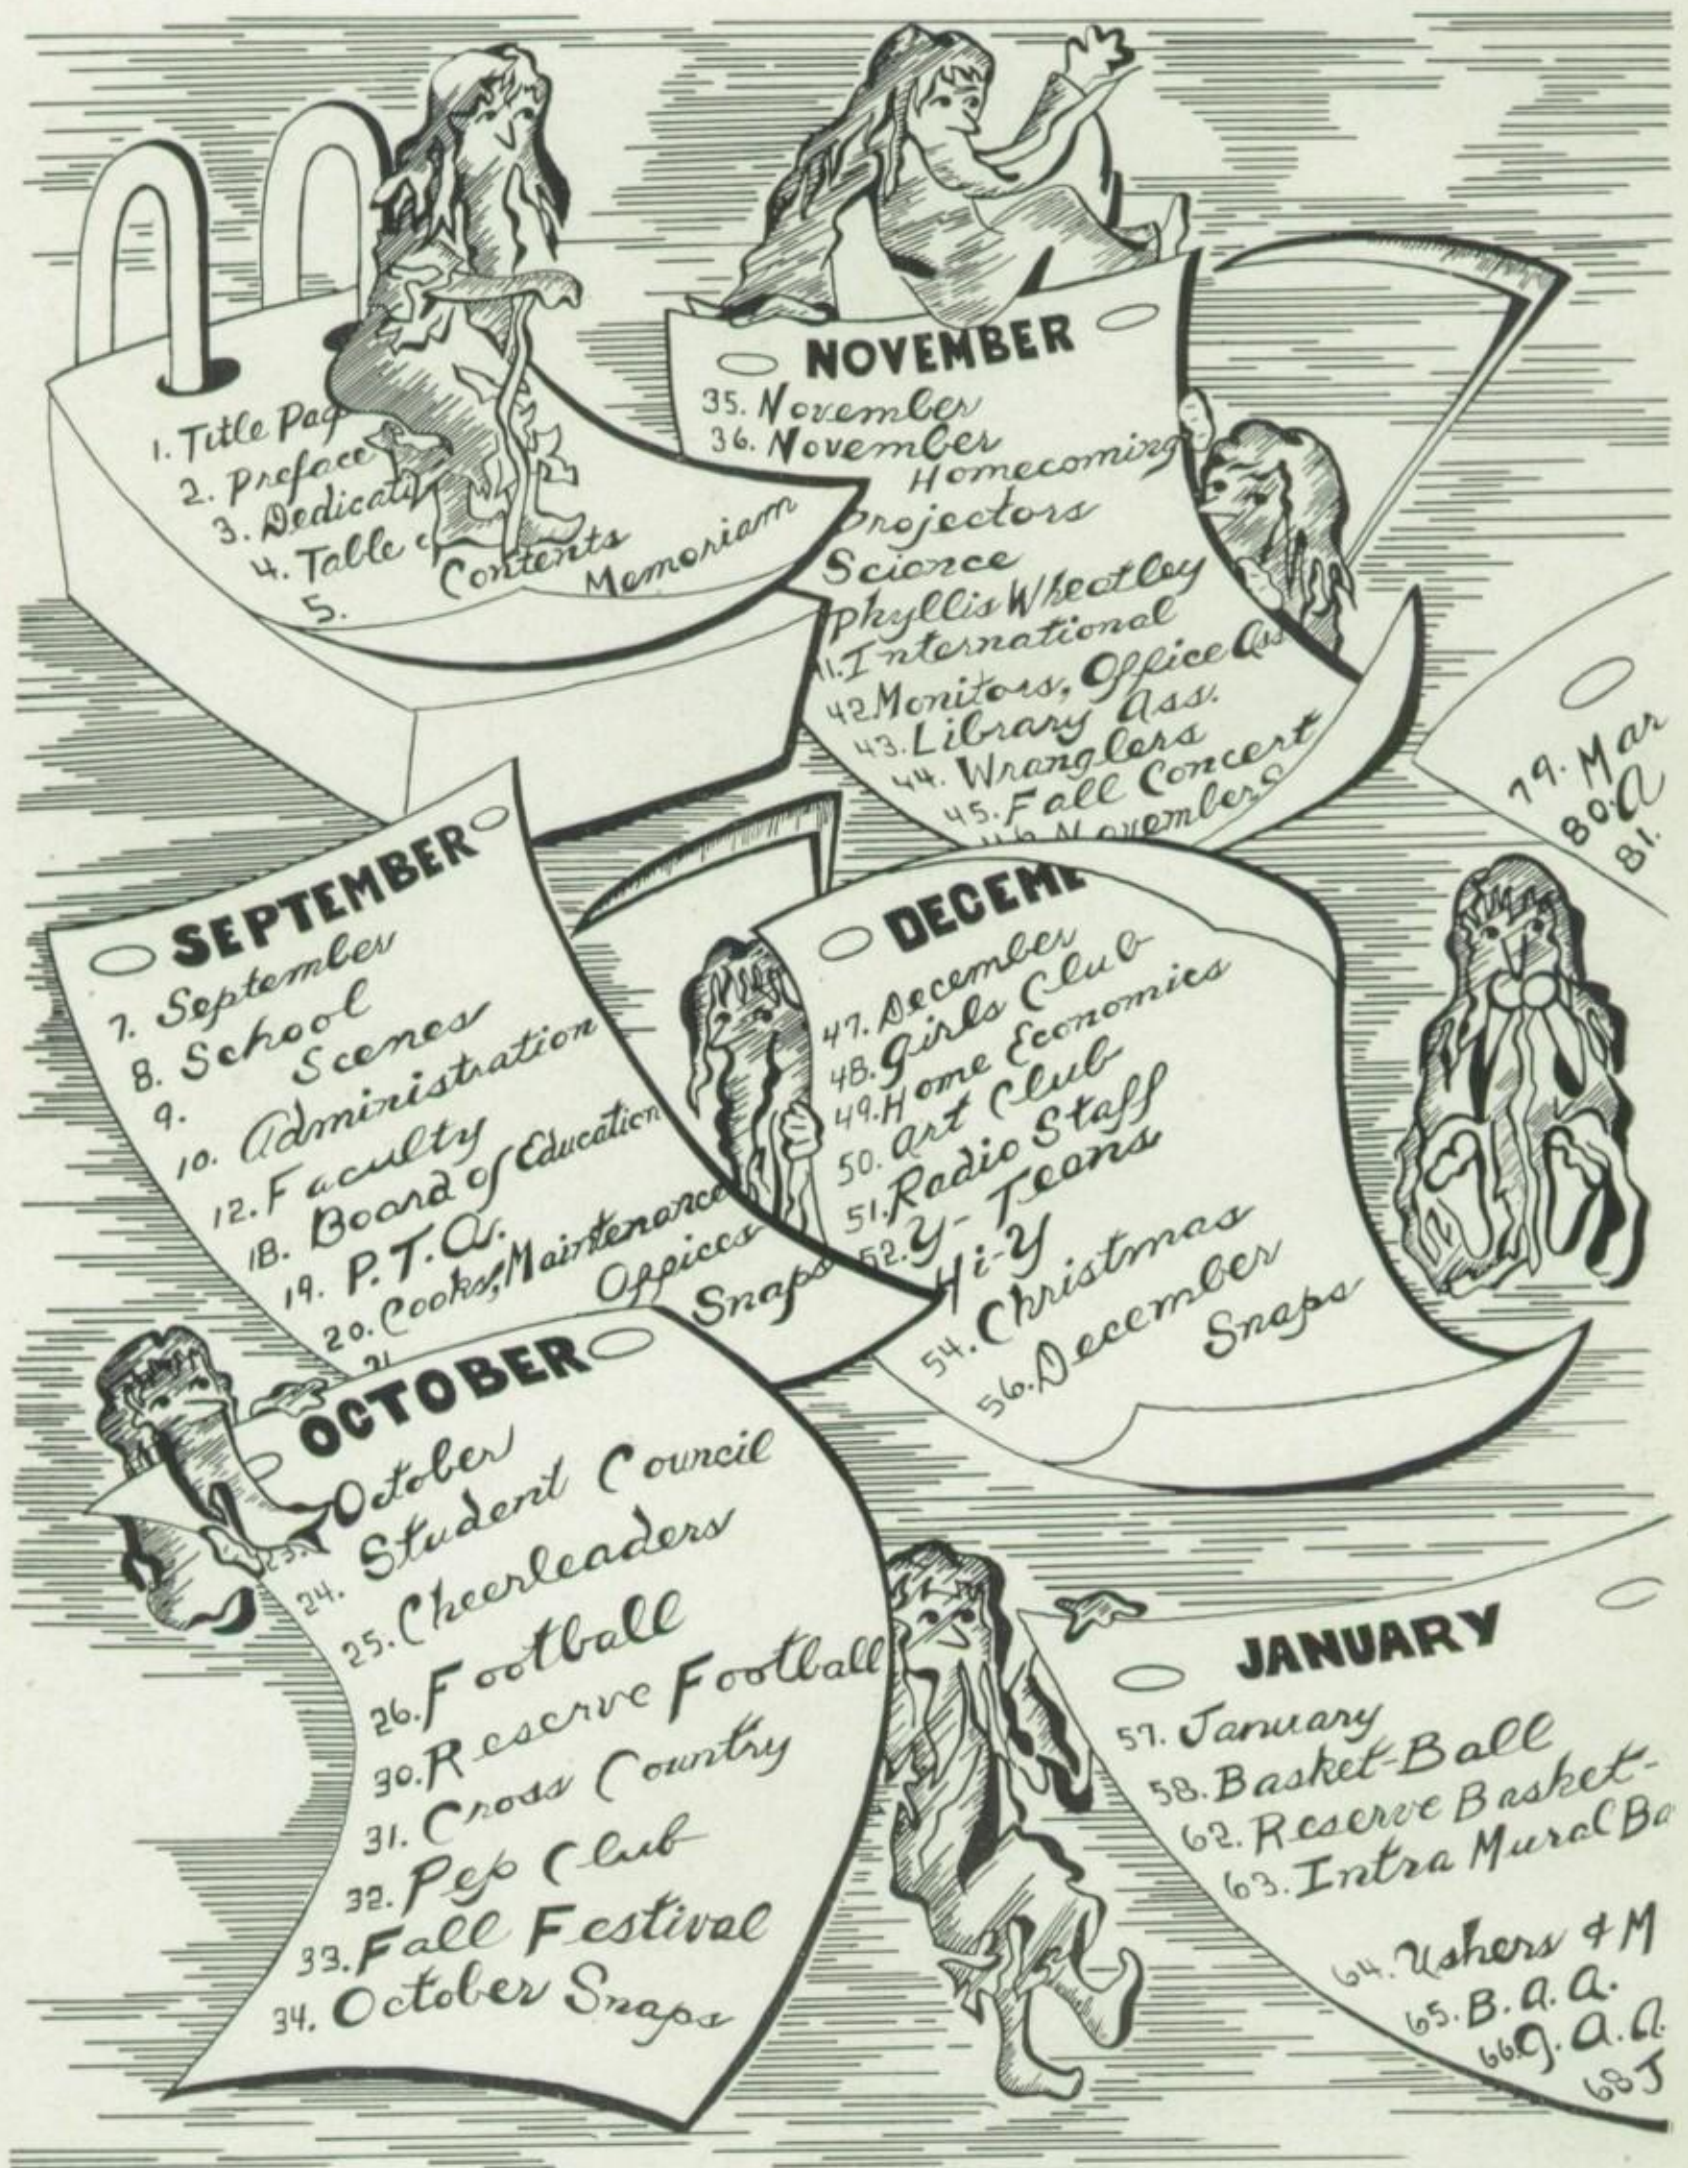

Miss Edith Markley graduated from Danville High School and after several years came back here to spend thirty years teaching in her chosen field, foreign languages. Her fluent ability to converse in and to make attractive French and Spanish will long be remembered. For a time she taught Latin, but for the most of her teaching career she has been interested in the modern languages and has served as the head of that department. An active adviser of International Club, she helped to establish it in our school. Miss Markley's absence will be deeply felt at D.H.S.

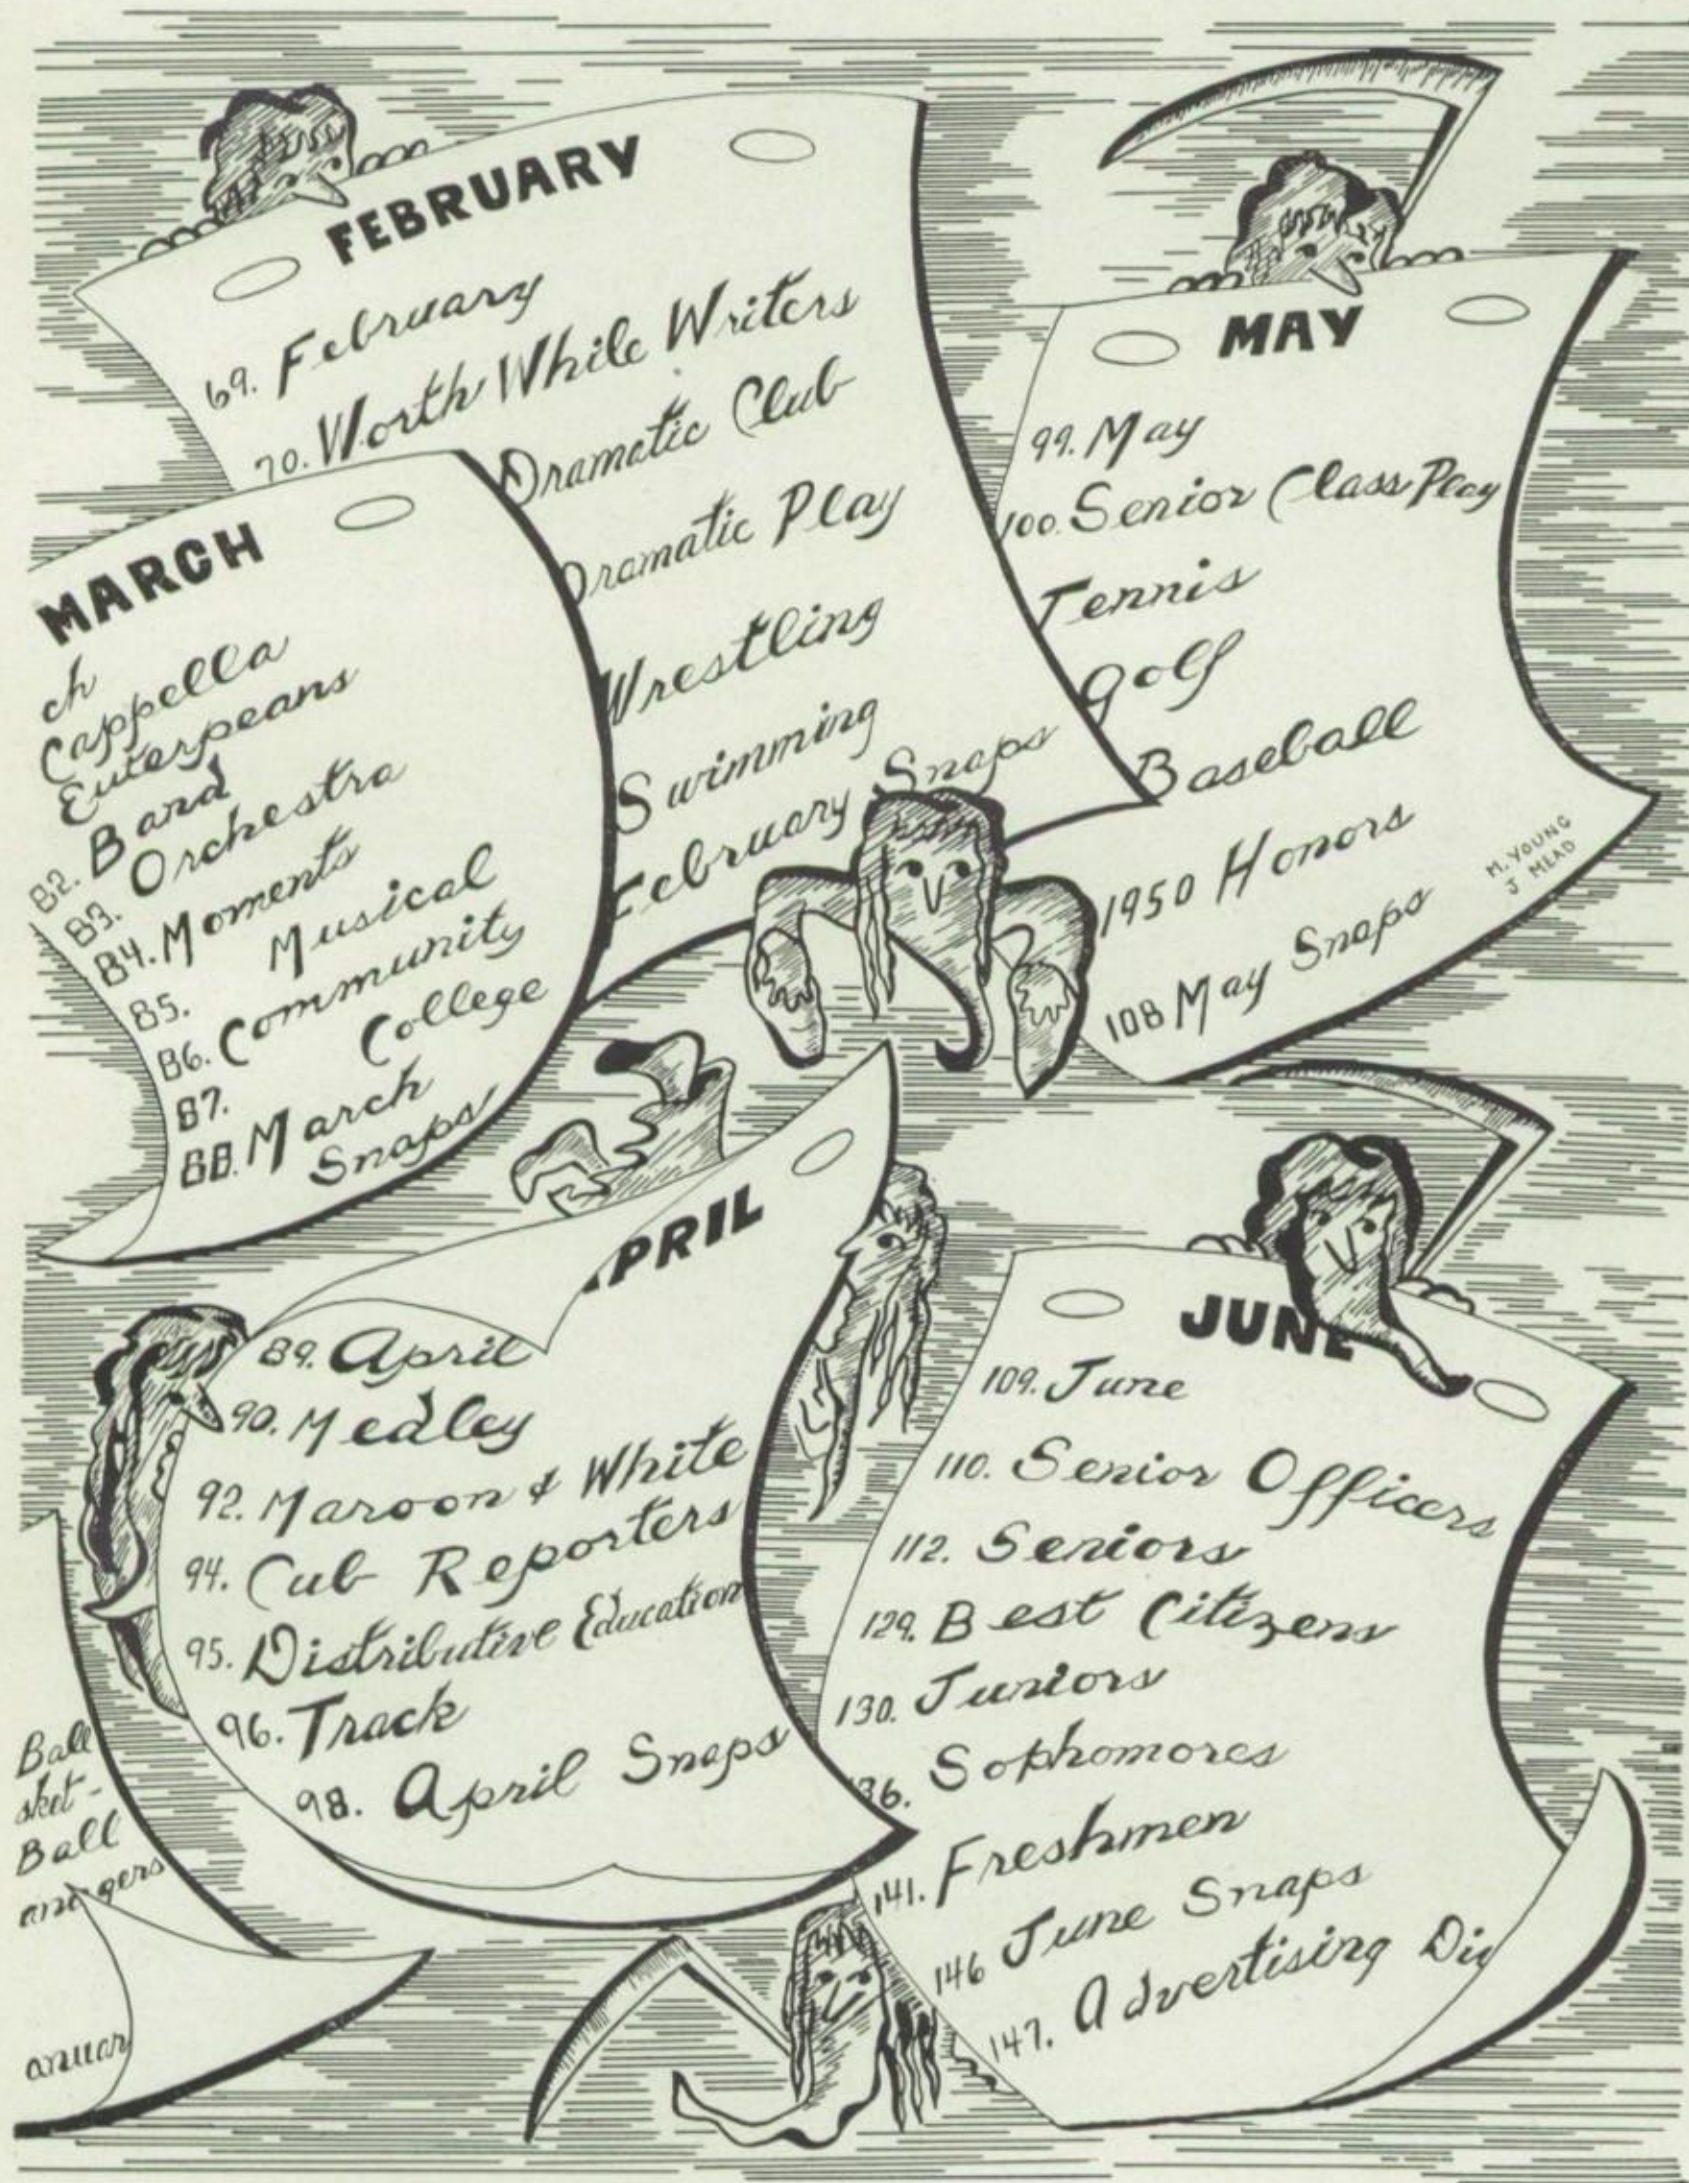

To both of these fine people we say thanks for your fine job and inspiration to us and "au revoir."

In Memoriam

Dana Bracewell, a member of the Board of Education, died October 27, 1950. Mr. Bracewell was a native of Danville and had attended the Danville Schools. He was an active member and served in most of the official capacities of the Bricklayers' and Stonemasons' Union, and was a delegate for several years to the Vermilion County Central Trades and Labor Council. At the time of his death he was beginning his second three-year term on the Board of Education. He was chairman of the building and grounds committee and a member of the athletic and supply committees. Mr. Bracewell was the moving spirit behind the erection of the concession stand built by the G.I. apprentices under the supervision of the Danville Building Trades Council. He was also instrumental in obtaining the materials furnished by the building dealers of Danville.

The whole school was saddened by the death of Betty Perrigo, daughter of Mrs. E. L. Schick, who was fatally injured August 29, 1950, in West Lebanon, Indiana, when she fell from a horse onto the pavement. Betty's friendly personality made her extremely popular among all students of D.H.S. She was an active participant in many organizations, including Dramatic Club, Girls' Club and Y-Teens. This year she was to have been News Editor of the Maroon and White, her junior year. She was born May 21, 1934 and was a graduate of Garfield School before her entrance into D.H.S. She was also a member of Central Christian Church.

E. D. MILHON

*Indiana Central College, B.S.
Butler University, M.S.*

Three years have passed since Mr. Milhon took over the duties of principal at D.H.S. In this time he has done a remarkable job. Many friends have been won by his friendly personality and genuine interest in student activities. He has exercised a great deal of thought and patience in helping the students. Though his job has been a big one, he has never been too busy to stop and chat. As friend, adviser, and leader, Mr. Milhon performed an invaluable service for Danville High School.

J. McLEAN REED

*Ohio Northern University
Ohio State University*

His understanding and patience have made Mr. Reed well-liked among all Danville land. With impartiality and kindly determination he upheld the principles of honesty and fairness. His thoughts and wishes were ever for the success and progress of the students. His influence and interest extended beyond the school and into those civic and educational organizations with which he has allied himself. In his desire to make our schools the very best he has worked very hard.

D. V. SCHOOLCRAFT

*Wabash College, A.B.
University of Illinois, M.A.
Indiana State Teachers' College*

Wit and wisdom combined with discipline helped to make Mr. Schoolcraft a well-liked Dean of Boys. Many a boy in high school came to value his helpful words of advice. When, occasionally Mr. Schoolcraft could take time off from his duties, he honored the students with a few tunes on the piano, much to their joy.

HELEN THOMPSON

*Illinois Wesleyan University
University of Illinois, A.B.*

With patience and understanding, Miss Thompson has well performed her duties as Dean of Girls. Besides issuing transfers and excuses and solving the girls' problems, she found time to sit in on Student Council and Homeroom Representative meetings and act as adviser to Y-Teens.

E. A. BATES

*Iowa State Teachers' College, A.B.
University of Iowa, M.A.*

When in doubt about your program card or the selection of a college, Mr. Bates has been the one for you to see. As Guidance Director, Mr. Bates patiently adjusted schedules and revised program cards for late registrants or transfer students. Valuable advice about college and students' records were also available from him.

Board of Education

The board of education is composed of seven civic-minded persons who spend many hours working for the betterment of our schools. The board has been headed this year by Dr. Holland Williamson.

Dr. Holland Williamson, president

Mrs. Ruby Bracewell

Mr. Loy Froman

Mrs. Vera Johnson, secretary

Mr. William Neff

Second Row: Mrs. Cessna, Mrs. Kneedler, Mrs. Stunkard, Mrs. Waltzer, Mrs. Gibson.

Third Row: Mr. Milhon, Mr. Bandy.

The main purpose of Parent Teachers Association was to acquaint the parents with the teachers who instructed their children, and to further more interest in students' activities by keeping the parents informed. Students and outside speakers made the P.T.A. meetings interesting and worthwhile for the members. This year the parents were taken on a tour of the high school building that they might view the facilities available for the students and better understand their needs.

Officers of the association for the past year were the following: President, Mrs. M. V. Courtney; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Dazey, 2nd vice-president; Mr. E. D. Milhon; secretary, Miss Donna Stuebe; and treasurer, Mrs. R. C. Gerrard.

Dr. Reed's Office

The keeping of files and secretarial work of our superintendent, Mr. Reed, was capably and efficiently done, for we have some workers who rate with the best in that office. Like the main office assistants, these workers receive little recognition of their efforts during the year, but we really did appreciate their work, which kept our school running so smoothly.

Mrs. Johnson, Miss Keefer.

Cooks

Mr. Cole, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Ervin, Mrs. Kemna, Mrs. Prouse, Mrs. Domgall, Mrs. Tracey, Mrs. Wahlfeldt, Mrs. Hedden, Mrs. Chapin, Mr. Pickett, Mrs. Pedigo.

Behind the scenes at D.H.S., the cafeteria staff and maintenance staff kept things running smoothly. This year the cafeteria was under new direction, with Mr. and Mrs. Cole taking it over. Though these workers were seldom noticed, they performed a valuable service to the school, and we did appreciate them greatly. Special mention should go to Mr. Techtow and Mr. Albert Ollis, who are retiring this year. Mr. Techtow has served as second floor custodian for the past few years. Mr. Ollis had been an invaluable stage custodian for the past twenty-five years; many a curtain has he run up. Our thanks have been given to all these people.

Maintenance

Retiring: Miss Boord, Mr. Techtow, Mr. Ollis.

First Row: F. Bailey, O. Buckelleu, M. Rothwell, R. Wilison, A. Williams, V. J. Parker.
Second Row: E. Bartlow, F. Bonebrake, E. Hartshorn, G. Grubbs, H. Snyder.

Second Row: F. Bolser, P. Techtow, A. Ollis, C. Meers, B. Pepping.
Absent: Mrs. Stuebe, Mrs. Bennett, Mr. Hill.

Offices

Mrs. Quick, Mrs. Lewis, Miss Harmeson

A great deal of credit should be given to those workers in the D.H.S. offices, for without their help the school would have been greatly handicapped. Theirs were little publicized organizations and little known to the students around D.H.S., but they did many of the thankless jobs around Danville High School which make it the great high school that it is today. The class records, honor rolls and things which mean so much to us had been carefully kept by these workers, in Mr. Milhon's office.

As manager of the Business Office, Mr. Hayes tirelessly performed his many duties, always with a smile on his face. An extra amount of patience was required during the football and basketball season, when he tried to issue tickets fairly so that everybody might have a chance to attend. To Mr. Hayes we gave a salute of appreciation for all his efforts. Also to Mr. Newton we were grateful for his willingness to help in the Business Office.

Student Council

Seated: Donna Richison.

Standing: John Honey, Pres.; Miss Thompson, Adviser; Tom Dye, Sandra Mergette.

In the weekly sessions of student council the leaders of our school met to discuss the current issues most bothersome to the student body. Problems, however, were just a part of their work. They promoted social activity by parties, such as the one after the Sectional tournament and the two All-School parties, Fall Festival and Jinx Jubilee. Members also selected the assembly program speakers for the year and took turns introducing them. An interesting project this year was the sanding of the desks in 246; also various homecoming plans. All presidents of school organizations, captains of the athletic teams, class representatives, and editors of publications are members of student council.

Honoring D.H.S. at the annual conventions were Charlot Goltz, State first vice-president, and Bill Stuebe, District president-elect. President John Honey led the home council, aided by vice-president Sandra Mergette, secretary Donna Richison, and treasurer Tom Dye. Miss Helen Thompson advised this group, which meets 6th hour of every week.

Cheer Leaders

J. Handley, F. Norbut, R. Waltemath, A. Gibson, P. Welch.

A most important factor behind winning a game, according to many pep assembly speakers, is the "will to win." Only with the help of our D.H.S. cheerleaders was the "will" acquired. Cheerleaders with vim and vigor such as those of '51 had, can put a winning spirit into any team, and liven up the cheering section as well.

Chosen after try-outs before the members of the Pep Club, the cheerleaders took on the task of urging on our football team, and then were joined during basketball season by the younger members of the group.

Leading cheers for the Varsity this year were Phyllis Welch, Faye Norbut, Jean Handley, Anne Gibson, and Ronnie Waltemath. Rooting for the reserves were Patty Sanks, Carol Barr, and Shirley Garland. These leaders, along with the Pep Club, made each assembly a success, and inspired our boys to forge ahead.

Although the football season ended with Danville winning two and losing seven, the team, hampered by injuries and in a slightly tougher schedule, earned credit for their fine defensive work and their enthusiastic spirit. Under their new coach, Ralph Wagner, and his assistants, Joe Ward and Art Mathisen, the boys shifted to a new system and had trouble getting started.

The Maroons put up a brilliant battle in the opening game with Crane Tech, who had a great weight advantage. Then, as in the next game at the Kankakee field, fumbles hindered the Danville attack. The Maroons were host next to Urbana for their first win and their first conference game. Both offense and defense were up to par and the Maroons took the game 26-6, scoring their first touchdown on the very first play of the game. Powerful Thornton of Harvey completely dominated the next encounter 34-0. Champaign, Danville's oldest rival, did it again as they handed the Maroons their worst defeat of the year 54-0. The Danville attack was seriously bogged down by injuries to regulars, Bob Clem and Davey Woodard.

Traveling to Mattoon, the Maroons scored against the Green Wave but the game ended 12-6 in favor of Mattoon. The next week they succeeded in holding a highly favored Streator team to only one touchdown and found their defensive plays were beginning to pay off.

In the homecoming game they edged out Clinton, Indiana 6-0 to help make the celebration a success.

In the last game of the season the Maroons gave the Springfield Senators a scare, almost upsetting them 13-12. Captain Roy Curtis and 14 members of the team ended their high school career in this game.

Next year! That's the goal that impelled the Football Reserves to keep on trying. Open to freshmen and sophomores the team offered good practice for later years on the varsity squad. Games were played on Saturday mornings or after school. This season the squad won four and lost two, the first to Urbana 18-12 and the second to Champaign 7-0. Victories were over nearby rivals Catlin, Oakwood, and Georgetown and Paris. The team was coached by Mr. Ave and Mr. Christy.

Assembly plans

Hurrah for the Pep Club! At last spirits and enthusiasm rose and even began to chip the auditorium ceiling in old D.H.S. The club sponsored many assemblies before big games; also the sending of good luck tokens and encouraging telegrams. A new project this year was the selling of basketball season tickets on the time payment plan, so that more students would be able to afford them.

Originally instigated by the Student Council, the club became independent this year, advised by Miss Donna Stuebe, Mrs. William Chisholm, and Mrs. Paul Behmer. Presidents were Gus Day and Sandra Mergette, who were assisted by secretary Roy Curtis and treasurer Royal Senn.

Aw, puleeze cheer

An old grad entertains

"So let's cheer, cheer, the gang's all here, all out for Danville High!" And most of the gang was here, at the fifth annual homecoming at D.H.S. Getting the festivities underway was an assembly on the morning of November 3 for alumni and present students wherein the classes of '20, '30 and '40 were featured. Speakers were Dean D. V. Schoolcraft, Mrs. Paul Timmons, and Kenneth Bentley of the respective classes. Alums presented the entertainment, with dance numbers presented by Helen Taylor and Maru Ollis, and songs by Mrs. Mary Eilbracht. Queen Faye Norbut and her court ruled over the festivities here and during the pep session which closed the assembly. Cheers were led by Phil Parker, a former cheerleader. Continuing the pep session after school a parade of floats, cars, and trucks, gaily decorated with crepe paper and streamers, visited the business section of town. The high school band led the parade, followed by the queen and her attendants and the enthusiastic followers of the team.

That evening the Maroons pitched in with their share of the bargain, defeating Clinton, Indiana 6-0.

The queen and her court

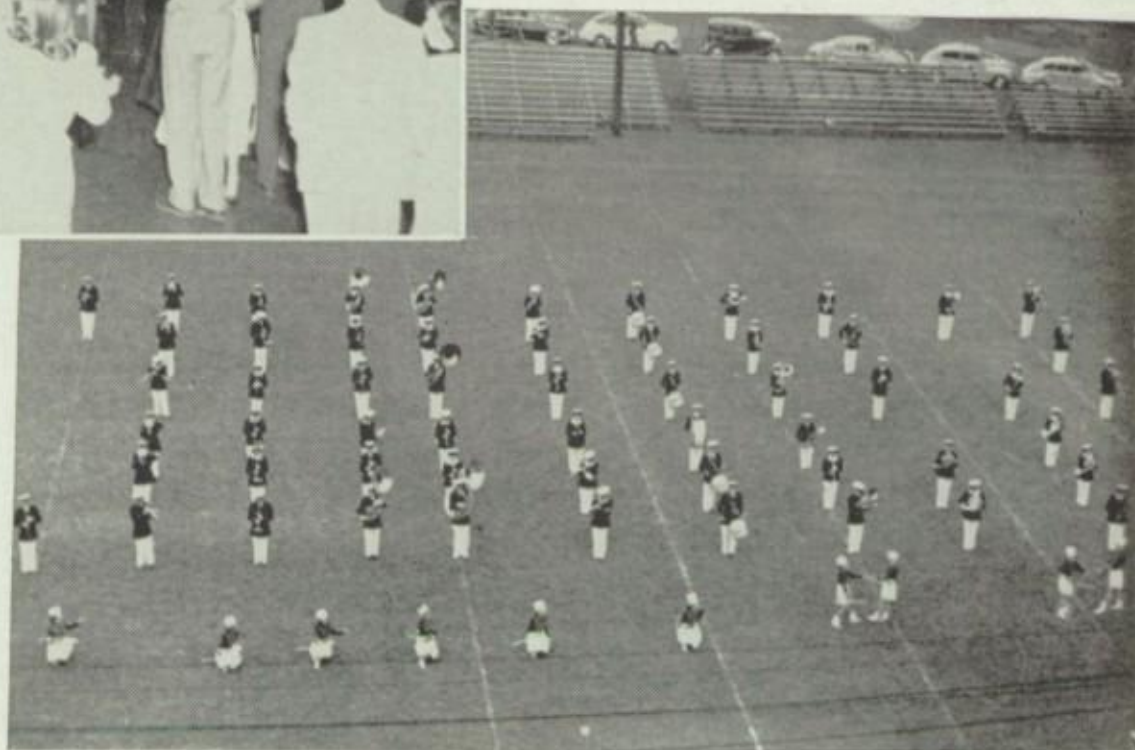

Our "team"

The spectacle of the evening, however, was the dance after the football game, in the boys' gym, which was decorated with a false ceiling of colorful balloons. Wilma Stuebe, last year's queen, returned to present the queen's scepter to her successor, Faye Norbut, who with her court reigned over the festivities. During the dance, a reception was held in the girls' gym, to renew old acquaintances. Only hard work by all D.H.S. organizations made the occasion one so happily remembered.

Projector's Club

Mr. Ward, Adviser, Raymond Wyatt, John Reynolds, Dwight Wenger, Pres., Robert Winslow.

Student operators of D.H.S., headed by President Dwight Wenger, have given time and valuable service to the many departments of the school in showing films related with class work. The members also sponsored the showing of movies in study hall 216 during the All-School parties, Fall Festival and Jinx Jubilee.

With the membership limited to thirty, the club met every two weeks to discuss the latest development and equipment. New headquarters this year have been on the first floor in Miss Thompson's former office. Here the equipment was stored and all film schedules and programs were worked out.

Mr. Ward became the new adviser in the club's third year. Other officers were Bob Winslow, vice-president; John Reynolds, secretary-treasurer, and Raymond Wyatt, program chairman.

Science Club, in writing a new constitution this year, selected their purpose of the club to be to promote the aims of science, to promote interest among students in science, and to make known the importance of science in everyday life. A full and interesting program was carried on throughout the year, consisting of field trips, demonstrations, and talks. The Science Club members took a trip through the school and saw how the swimming pool was supplied with water; they also viewed the Manual Arts building. At one of their meetings George Summerall gave a demonstration on black light. This year Science Club contributed a display of books, mainly in the biology line, and a picture of birds to the library, in honor of the late Miss Ruth Ernest, a former science teacher at D.H.S.

Science Club met every first and third Thursday of each month, with president Reta Miller in charge. Assisting her were vice-president Rachel Kay; secretary-treasurer Carolyn Smith, and reporter George Summerall. Mr. Seip and Mr. Johnson acted as advisers for the group.

Standing: Connie Woodard, Theresa Cumby, Rosemary Atkinson, Delores Lillard, Betty Oliver.

Gracious living, high ideals, and a well-rounded life was the goal of every girl in Phyllis Wheatley Y-Teens. Meeting on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month, the girls exchanged ideas on etiquette and good grooming, books, and the latest styles of fashion. Teas and parties and a Christmas gift exchange highlighted the holiday season. A series of three dances was given during the year at the Y.W.C.A. to entertain the members and their guests.

Guiding the girls was Barbara Overstreet, who was assisted by Miss Mildred Glindmeier and Miss Carolyn Miller as advisers, vice-president Marianne Pettiford, secretary Rose Oliver, and treasurer Theresa Cumby.

Standing: Miss Markley, Adviser; Mary Anne George, Sue Norwood, Miss Roach, Adviser.

The languages and customs of foreign countries were the chief interest of members of International Club, official organization of the language departments of D.H.S. The membership of the club was divided into committees from the four major departments—French, German, Latin, and Spanish. Each month these committees planned an interesting and educational program. Holidays were observed with traditional customs and talks, and other entertainment. Some members had pen-pals in far-off countries with whom they corresponded.

Students having an average of 90 or above for one, two, three, or four years were presented awards by the club in the spring of the year. A special Latin pin award was also presented at that time.

Piloting the organization was President Nora Kenney. Other officers were Anne Gibson, vice-president; Mary Anne George, secretary, and Sue Norwood, treasurer. Advising this group were Miss Markley and Miss Roach.

Performing many helpful tasks around D.H.S. were the office assistants, who typed, checked and delivered notes and slips. They also collected attendance slips and were trained to operate the switchboard.

"Go Back! One-way traffic only!" That was the voice of a student monitor at D.H.S. One-way traffic on stairs was successfully introduced this year and met with great satisfaction to the students; though at times, however, they forgot.

We gave much credit to those student volunteers who patrolled our halls, for tactfulness has been required to see that all rules and regulations were properly enforced.

To the average student, the library helpers do nothing more than check books in and out and check the attendance. However, many other things must be done, such as bulletin boards, shelf labels, typing, mending, overdue notices, filing, and checking. In order that library assistants working different hours might get to know each other, they organized with this and the thought of serving the school and other organizations through the library, as their purpose. Their main project this year was compiling lists of books helpful to all other clubs. At meetings held on Tuesday mornings during homeroom, they received instructions and planned their work. Their three social highlights of the year were an annual Christmas decorating party, a Valentine Pop Corn party, spring picnic, and a May Day Breakfast, which was a farewell party for the seniors.

Wranglers Club

The art of expressing one's ideas, a most necessary part in our complex life today, occupied Wranglers Club members this year. This was the aim of these students, when, with one member acting as leader, they discussed current events of world and local interest, and problems in high school life. Besides being responsible for the annual Thanksgiving assembly, Wranglers planned the Memorial Day service, and inter-class debates.

Members of the organization were so often called upon for special talks before the P.T.A. and various civic groups, that a special Speakers' Bureau was established this year to cater to these groups.

Guiding the club's activities was President Celia Kraft, and her officers, vice-president Carolyn Pound, secretary-treasurer Joan Wagner, chairman of social committee Marianne Robbins, and chairman of program committee Lucille Heflin. Advising them were Miss Ruth Sandeson and Miss Grace Swisher.

Fall Concert

In the fall the Music Department presented its twelfth annual Fall Concert, a program including semi-classical and classical music.

The first part of the program was presented by Senior Orchestra, W. B. Holl, director. Selections were "Roumanian Fantasy," "Mozart Symphonette" (string orchestra with flute and clarinet), and "The Cat and the Fiddle." Assisting were Carolyn Pound, student director, and Margaret Kemna, narrator.

Following the orchestra were Freshman A Cap-

PELLA and Fifth Hour A Cappella. Then came the A Cappella Choir, singing "The Blue Tail Fly" and "One World."

Membership ceremonial

Girls' Club, the oldest and largest of all D.H.S. clubs for girls, broke the record this year when early in the fall they initiated one hundred forty-two freshman girls. Often, meetings, originally planned to be held in 117, were moved to the auditorium to accommodate the girls.

Many activities highlighted the calendar of Girls' Club, whose meetings were held on the first and third Wednesdays of each month. Style shows, movies, and talks were only a few of the programs. A play was presented by several members, with the help of some D.H.S. boys, in the spring. The annual Christmas party for underprivileged grade children was given. Long to be remembered were the delightful cabinet dinners.

This year's cabinet of president Lou Anne Linne, vice-president Estella Cornett, secretary Charlot Goltz, treasurer Delores Medcalf, and pianist Carolyn Pound, with the various committees and their respective advisers, helped make Girls' Club the active organization in D.H.S., of which Mrs. Harriet Rewerts, head adviser, was justly proud.

Through demonstrations, talks, and experience, the members of Home Economics Club learned to become efficient housewives of the future, to purchase food economically, and to serve food which would be enticing and yet contain the needed vitamins and nutrients.

Roma Jean Collins led the group as president, with vice-president Alice Carpenter, and secretary Myrna Murphy assisting with the work. Chairmen of the program committee were Veda Carney, Shirley Thomas, and Wilma Yeats. Donna Briggs, Rose Ellen Highley, and Helen Meyer comprised the social committee chairmen. Miss Mildred Glindmeier, Miss Dolpha Parker, and Miss Rosalyn Potter acted as advisers of the club.

Standing: Mary Ann Haas, Nancy Wear.

Field trips to parks and other places of interest, sketching from live models, and talks comprised the varied activities of Art Club. However, they were most noted by their splendid Christmas display in the north hall. The theme this year was the United Nations, and a figure was made to represent each member nation, in his native costume. Even though these students may not plan to make art a career, they gained much helpful experience which will come in handy often in days to come.

Members of the Art Department through Art Club entered paintings and drawings in the Regional High School Art Exhibit at Peoria this year. Kenny Cessna was honored with a key award entitling his painting to show in the National High School exhibit at Carnegie Institute in Philadelphia this summer. Other members who received certificates of place were Osmond Guy, Jackie Juergens, Frances Patten, Louis Peyton, Nancy Wear, and Marjorie Young. Reta Miller received an award of the A. A. U. W. which entitled her to study under Mr. Harold McDonald, director of the Danville Art League.

A resumé of the latest high school news, sports, and club events made up the carefully planned and timed programs broadcasted by the D.H.S. Radio Staff. Featured on these programs were various departments and extra-curricular organizations. Originating from the Little Theater, Band Room or the Auditorium stage of D.H.S., the programs were broadcasted from 3:45 to 4:00 over Station WDAN. From these broadcasts the people of Danville land were informed of school events, while students received valuable radio experience.

The members of the staff were chosen in the fall of the year by tryouts on the basis of their voice qualities. Mr. R. D. Purkey was adviser of the staff, which was composed of the following chairmen of staffs: Announcer, Lou Anne Linne; General Newscasters, Marilyn Hughes; Sports-casters, Bob Seybold; Publicity and Typing, Carolyn Hinton; Special Features, Nora Kenney, and Maintenance Staff, John Dowling.

Eats!

The Y-Teens, a girls' organization, represented the Y.W.C.A. at our school. Informal dances after various sports events were planned to create a sincere feeling of friendliness among all students. In the fall of the year a "Sadie Hawkins" dance was held to give the girls a chance to "catch that man" and also to provide money for a Halloween Party at the Children's Home. At Thanksgiving time a basket of food was given to a needy family. During the Valentine season, following ancient custom, they combined efforts with the Hi-Y's in the annual "Sweetheart Supper." Topping the year's roll of officers was Donna Richison, president. Assisting her were vice-president Mary Neal, secretary Carolyn Pound, treasurer Betty Peyton, and advisers, Miss Helen Thompson and Miss Carolyn Miller.

Brother organization to the Y-Teens, the Hi-Y was headed by Royal Senn. Open to all boys in school, Hi-Y endeavored to bring to its boys a fuller appreciation of life. Throughout the year its program included speakers, educational films, talks, discussions, and occasional field trips. Other activities such as swimming and basketball, were also popular. Hi-Y boys assisted the Y-Teens in sponsoring school dances held after each football and basketball game, and occasionally during the summer vacation. In the spring the annual picnic was held, at which time next year's officers were elected.

President Royal Senn was elected treasurer of the district Hi-Y when he and three other Danville members and their adviser, Mr. Harold Seip, journeyed to Clinton, Indiana, for the annual district conference. Senn headed the Hi-Y delegation to the state Pre-legislative Program at the University of Illinois in March. Accompanying the delegation were club co-sponsors, Mr. Glen Murphy and Mr. Harold Seip. This meeting was in preparation for the annual Hi-Y Youth and Government Session held in the State capitol building in Springfield. The purpose of this session was to acquaint the Hi-Y with the legislative procedures of the State Government.

Other officers were vice-president Joe Gulick, secretary Eddie Bleveans, treasurer Jack Ellis, and chaplain Bob Gogerty.

G. Michaelson, Coach Mathisen, R. Rigoni

For the second time in the history of D.H.S. the Danville Maroons went to the state for the second consecutive year. At the beginning of the season the fans did not expect such a thing. We had a new coach, Art Mathisen, and only two regulars returning from last year's squad. However, the team started well, running the winning streak to 32 home games before falling to Decatur 48-66. Entering the East St. Louis Holiday Tournament, the Maroons succeeded in downing Wood River but lost to the fast Johnston City team.

Basketball

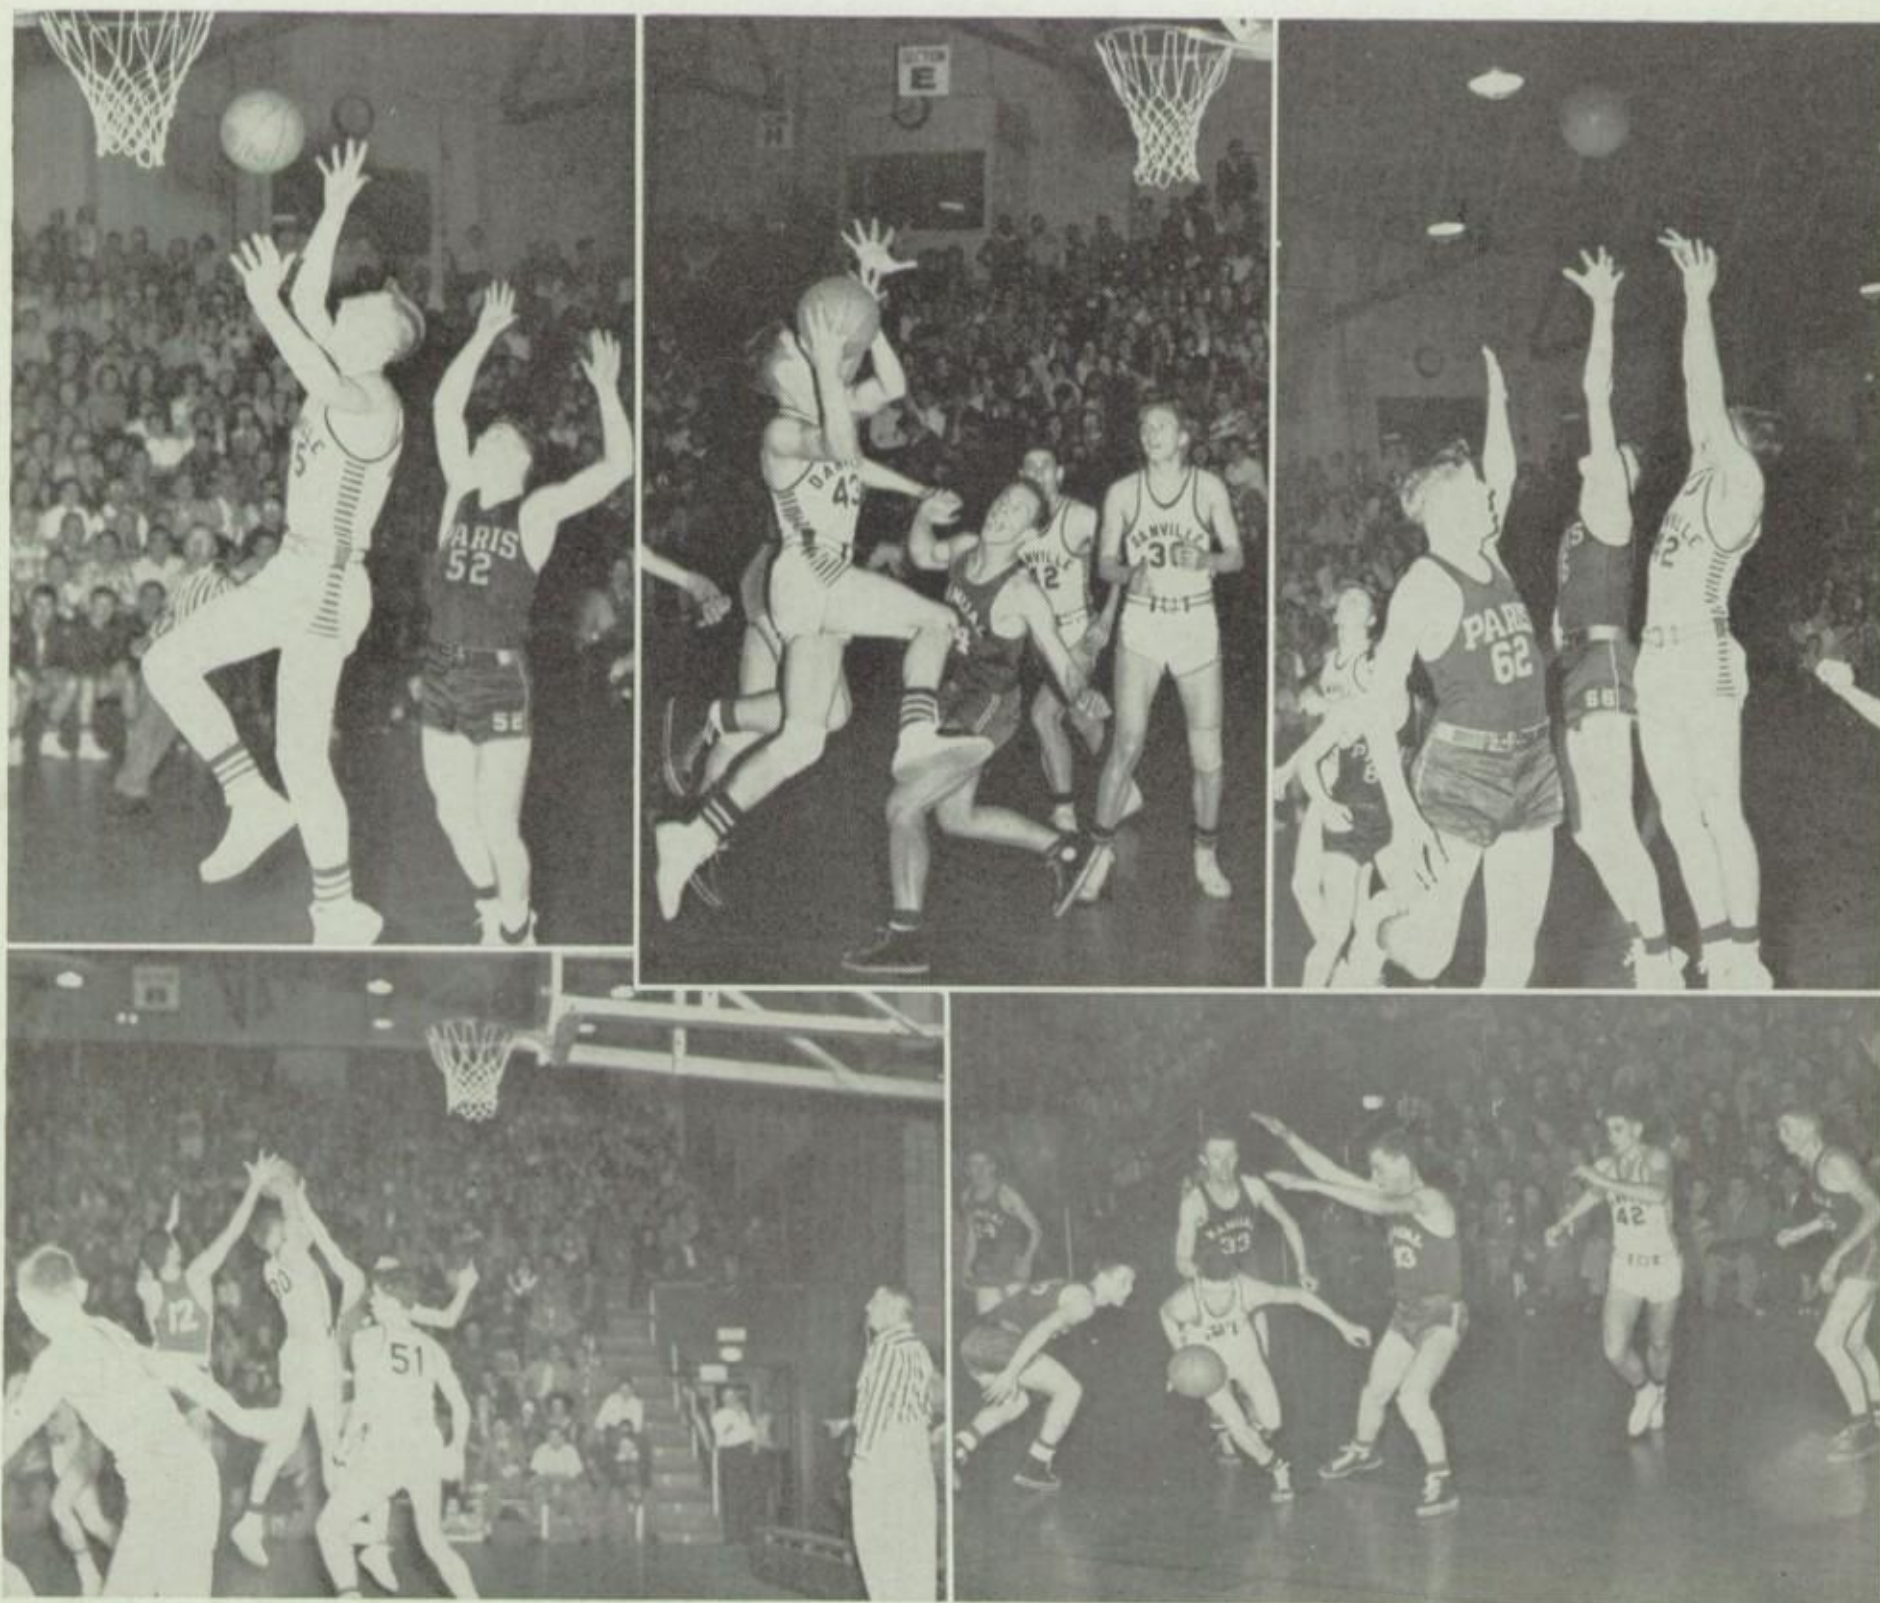

After the Christmas holidays the team came home to defeat our arch-rival, Champaign, and then lost to Bloomington. The rest of the season was a series of ups and downs, with victories over Streator, Champaign, Clinton, Indiana, and Urbana, among others, and losses to strong Mattoon, twice, and Lincoln.

The last few weeks of the season the team started to work together as a unit and thrilled the fans with a story-book finish to the regular season with wins over highly rated Paris, 61-58, and Thornton of Harvey, 49-46.

Sectional champs

Our team in action

Co-captain Gene Michaelson

Co-captain Ron Rigoni

Going into regional play the Maroons were faced with some of their toughest competition. Overcoming Georgetown, the team proved that they had that extra something to come from behind and win. They overcame Schlarman of Danville and Westville—both games in overtime periods.

Play in their own sectional was rather anti-climatic, for they won it easily, defeating Buckley, 72-40, and Hoopeston for the title, 59-51.

Once again the Maroons were members of the "Sweet Sixteen," but this time we met our Big Twelve rival, Decatur, and bowed out by losing to them for a second time this season, 56-68.

Thus ended a season of which Co-captains Gene Michaelson and Ron Rigoni and Coach Mathisen can be justly proud. Rigoni was high scorer for the season and elected most valuable player by his teammates, while Dick Wade was chosen to lead the Maroons in '52.

Defeating Champaign and Urbana, and Mattoon twice, respectively, they had a tougher battle on hand with Manual of Indianapolis, but came through in an overtime to win 45-41. Trampling over Paris and Thornton, they ended the season triumphantly. Glen Robertson coached the Reserves.

Behind the scenes at all sports events were the ushers and managers, who formed the crew of helpers working behind the teams. Even though they seldom received much credit for their work, they rendered an invaluable service to the school in the many sports activities. We do appreciate all the effort put forth by our "men Friday!"

Ushers had a tough job on their hands trying to get the frenzied fans in place during sectional play. As for the managers, they worked themselves into nearly as nervous a state as the players themselves.

Board of Control meeting

B. A. A., or Boys' Athletic Association, was open to all boys in D.H.S. These boys met three times a year and tried to further interest in athletics and to promote better sportsmanship among all boys. At these major meetings, letters were awarded to the players just finishing their season of football, basketball, wrestling, swimming, track, tennis, or golf. An annual "D" banquet was held for those boys earning a "D" in athletics. Also, on the social side of B.A.A., the boys always turned out to help decorate for the many dances, and the Homecoming Parade.

Mother and Daughter Tea

The Girls' Athletic Organization, open to any girl in D.H.S., encouraged a greater interest in athletics and promoted sportsmanship. Activities were provided 'round the calendar with fall, winter, and spring sports such as soccer, basketball, swimming and tennis. Active participation in these events earned the girls coveted letters and numerals. This year G.A.A. sold D.H.S. socks and basketball pins.

Play days were held in the fall and spring with girls from other schools. In the summer three representatives were chosen to be sent to the G.A.A. Camp at Geneva, Wisconsin. In the spring of the year a special Sportsmanship Cup was awarded to the girl who had displayed the highest quality of sportsmanship in all athletic activities during her high school career. An annual Mother and Daughter Banquet highlighted the social activities of the club.

President of G.A.A. was Marlene Wynn, who had as officers Pat Glavey, vice-president; Nancy Wilson, treasurer; Reta Miller, secretary; and the following chairmen: points, Frances Greece; sports, Jenny Payne, and health, Dorothy Nelson. Advisers were Miss Christobel Bock and Miss Donna Stuebe.

To accomplish this they must have earned 1,000 Activity Points from participation in the various after school sports, plus 200 Health Points. The social side has not been neglected, however, for these girls have been unusually active. A Christmas sledding party, a Valentine party, and a Spring picnic were among the events enjoyed. Two initiations were held, one at the end of each semester for those girls who qualified to wear a "D."

Worth While Writers

Listening to?

Our aspiring writers put their creative skill to work in Worth While Writers Club, which met once a month to criticize their various works. Membership in the club was based upon articles submitted in the fall for judging by a committee. In the spring the club selected the best written material of its members, and published the booklet, "Dips o' Ink." A valentine party featuring original works, and a spring picnic were among the social highlights of the year.

Presiding at meetings this year were the president, Alice Bartlow, who was assisted by vice-president, Ruth Cooke; secretary, Betty Gibson; treasurer, Audree McMillan; and critic, Marjorie Young. Program chairmen were Carrie Haun and Connie Smith, and publicity chairman and social chairman were Toulia Vrentas and Barbara Marshall, respectively.

The D.H.S. Players worked hard to become members of Dramatic Club, outstanding for its one big stage production each school year. This year the play, a murder mystery full of suspense and thrills, was "The Thirteenth Chair."

Chosen in the fall by try-outs before a faculty committee, the members had an opportunity to get some stage experience through the one-act plays which were presented at each meeting. These were managed by the respective group chairmen under the direction of Carolyn Pound, play manager, and criticized by Jean Handley, play critic. The main social activity of the club was the Christmas Alumni Banquet.

Peggy Raimer was this year's president. Working with her and Miss Mary Miller, adviser, were Lou Ann Linne, vice-president, and Celia Kraft, secretary-treasurer. The year's activities were brought to a close at a spring picnic when new officers were installed and farewells were given to the graduating seniors.

Poor Mr. Wales!

"The Thirteenth Chair"

The drawing room of Roscoe Crosby's home set the scene for murder, as the curtain went up on another Dramatic Club thriller. The play opened with the announcement that Helen O'Neill, the private secretary of Mrs. Crosby, had just become engaged to the young son and heir of the wealthy Crosbys. Soon the medium, Madame LaGrange, was introduced to entertain the guests with her acts of magic. It then developed that a deeper reason was behind her visit. Wales, one of the guests of the Crosbys, was seeking the murderer of his friend, Spencer Lee. After all precautions were made to expose any trickery, and the room was put in complete darkness, Madame LaGrange went into her trance to bring back the spirit of Spencer Lee, in the hope that the murderer would be frightened into confession. Before the medium had a chance to utter the name of the murderer, he struck again, and this time Wales was the victim.

Extensive questioning by Inspector Donahue threw the suspicion on Miss O'Neill the medium's daughter. In order to prevent her arrest Madam LaGrange went into a second trance, and using the voice of Wales, forced Philip Mason to confess. Thus her daughter was released from the hand of the law and the guilty one was revealed.

The team scored a double victory over Mattoon but lost twice to Bloomington, Indiana and Lafayette Jefferson. They scored two more victories over Peoria Manual and Urbana. They struggled only to meet defeat by Lafayette West Side, 29-23.

Placing fourth in the Big 12 meet, they journeyed to the sectional, where they placed third. Two Maroon matmen, Jack Walker at 120 points and Jack Shutt, wrestling at 127, qualified for the State by bringing home a first place medal. Wrestling at 134, Tom Davis, due to the sickness of the man who defeated him in the Sectional, and Jim Gritton, 138 pounds, also were admitted to the State but failed to place.

Captain Walker and Jack Shutt won fourth place medals in the State Final Wrestling tourney. Coaching the matmen was Mr. Lester Bandy. Walker was elected most valuable player by his teammates.

Led by Capt. Dave Dalby, the swimming team won 4 out of their scheduled meets, defeating Urbana and Thornton Fractional of Calumet City each twice. Coached by Charles Ross, the team was well-balanced but didn't have much depth.

There were no individual stars on this squad though the 200 yard free style team succeeded in placing eighth at the state meet in qualifying time. The team placed third in the Big Twelve meet with 21 points. Capt. Dalby was chosen most valuable member of the team by his teammates.

Every chorus student dreamed of joining the big family of A Cappella, while an A Cappella student looked forward to the prospect of "making" Euterpeans. But dreams were made true only by hard work of those people who dream them, as these students well knew. Beginning its busy schedule immediately after school took up in the fall, the choir practiced for performances before various civic organizations. Next on the agenda was Fall Concert, which was immediately followed by a Christmas Assembly and caroling in the halls by music students and alumni. After the holidays, our musicians returned to the tunes to Moments Musical. However, work was not ended, for there was yet to prepare for "Big 12" at Springfield and lastly, graduation.

Heading the "family" were Charlot Goltz and Bill Wolcott, who were assisted by next year's presidents, Don Snyder and Shirley Erickson. Other officers were secretary Sandra Mergette, treasurer Luella Marana, librarians Sally Froman, Jim Engle, and Ted Courtney, and monitor Dave Mauerman. Acting as host and hostess were Phil Hawes and Carolyn Albin. Accompanist for the choir was Miss Helen Wolff.

Euterpeans

Euterpeans was a select group chosen for voice quality, dependability, and talent. As usual, one unit of Moments Musical was presented by this group. This year the Euterpeans journeyed o'er the high road into Scotland with typical songs and costumes, and to the tune of bagpipes. Ah, yes, our highland lads and lassies certainly gave a pleasing performance. It took nights and nights of after-school rehearsals, however, and lots of practice on the highland fling.

"... And the band played on..." To us this meant the D.H.S. Band, of course, at football games, basketball games, pep assemblies, Fall Concert, and Moments Musical. Spirits lifted as a good march burst forth. The D.H.S. Band was spectacular this year with its new formations on the football field.

Mr. W. B. Holl was the leader of the band, which practiced each sixth hour. President of the Band's Crescendo Club was Charles Handley, who was assisted by vice-president Royal Senn and secretary-treasurer Lucille Heflin. Board members were Sue McQuown, Ron Thayer, Carolyn Hinton, and Mary Neal.

Orchestra

The more dignified of the two instrumental divisions, the orchestra worked to promote a greater appreciation of classical music among the students of D.H.S. The orchestra's highlight performances of the year were Fall Concert and Moments Musical. In Moments Musical of '51, the orchestra shifted to ukuleles. With Margaret Kemna at the piano, a girls' trio and a boys' trio and Five Noodlers presented "Divertissement." This year, instead of holding separate parties, the orchestra joined with the band and the vocal students in holding a party after Moments Musical. In the spring they assisted with the Music Department's annual "Swing Ding" dance.

The orchestra's exclusive organization, the Metronome Club, had the following officers this year: president, Carolyn Pound; vice-president, Anne Gibson, and secretary-treasurer, Miriam Wilson. Board members were Margaret Holycross, Mary Quam, Jean Handley, and Lois Parmenter. Mr. W. B. Holl directed the group.

"Wagon Wheels"

As the curtain rose on the fourteenth annual "Moments Musical," the audience was brought back to a busy railroad station in days gone by. A bedraggled tramp, a bewitching spinster with a bird cage, a tall lanky cowboy and his girl friend were among the crowd. Among the celebrities who arrived at the station and were persuaded to entertain were John McCormack and Galli-Curci, as portrayed by two members of the choir, and the Dolly Sisters. Ensemble numbers by the whole choir included "Wagon Wheels" and the finale, "Wabash Cannon Ball."

"Mirth and Melody" in Unit II was presented by students of the bands, orchestra, and majorette corps, opening with the theme "Say It With Music." Various units of dancers were interspersed with the musical numbers. A special scene presented "In a Persian Market," complete with caliph, princess and her attendants, snake charmer, market girls and beggars.

In the final unit, the Euterpean singers brought a "Wee Bit of Scotland" to the D.H.S. stage. Piper Royal Senn crossed the line of lads and lassies in Scotch reel and kilts playing a genuine bagpipe. Out of the crowd came the great Harry Lauder and a pair of lovers to charm the crowd.

Community College

This year made the sixth anniversary of Danville Community College; in this time it has shown amazing progress. For three years it was known as Danville Extension, University of Illinois. It has been recognized as a junior college with the credits being transferable to other schools.

A full Freshman-Sophomore course was offered in Liberal Arts, Commerce, Engineering, Chemistry, Pre-Medical, and Pre-Dental. Our principal, Mr. E. D. Milhon, headed the staff, which consists of seven college faculty and some D.H.S. teachers, headed by Miss Mary Miller, dean.

The Community College boasted of a basketball team, and planned college-mixers and dances, plus a super Spring Prom, which added some fun to the grind of studying and kept Jack from being a dull boy. Square dancing, where friendship grows with fun, was quite popular with the students.

Planning these events were Charles Redmond, president of the Sophomores, and Harlan Hett-mansberger, head of the Freshman class. They were assisted by the following:

Time passed on but we of the Medley staff hope, as you open your '51 Medley from time to time, that it will tell the tale of those bygone schooldays, and recapture some forgotten memories of D.H.S. If our book can do this, then will the purpose of our '51 Medley be fully accomplished, and our work be well done. For it was work—for all of us. Only with the patient and wise counsel of Miss Frances Watkins, along with that of co-advisers Miss Betty Sullenberger, Mr. Ralph Espy, and Mr. Finley Hogbin, was our book assembled.

Along with the work we had our fun, of course. In the fall of the year we presented the annual Medley assembly, at which time we solicited subscriptions. Will anyone ever forget Jim Nichols as "Father Time," long hair included? In the months that followed, we gathered information of teams, organizations, and activities. In late March there were one or two hectic weeks of worry until, at last the deadline was met. Then we all settled back with a Cheshire cat's pleased smile, confident that we had produced the finest Medley ever.

A click, click of the typewriter would indicate that Donna Sue McKinzie, Copy Editor, had finally begun to worry about meeting the deadline. Dwight Wenger might be checking ads, while Business Manager John Honey was getting things ready for distribution. We've enjoyed every minute!

Weekly issues of the Maroon & White kept the students of D.H.S. well informed of past and future events around the school. Hard work and creative writing combined to make this newspaper one so highly rated by Quill & Scroll, honorary journalistic society. The first issue of Maroon & White was published in 1906; it has been both a monthly and a weekly. Miss Katherine advertising manager, Carolyn Pound; circulation manager, Royal Senn; and income manager, Jack Ellis. Also, photographer Bob Muirhead; typists Jo Anne Christenson and Marilyn Hughes, and bookkeeper Wesley Fanson.

Every Monday morning reporters secured their assignments. By Wednesday morning copyreaders were busy at work, correcting, adding, and cutting material until the paper was ready for the printers. Each Friday morning, it was returned for proofreading, and again sent to the printers. On Mondays the circulation staff distributed them. This cycle of work was changed this spring, when the paper was distributed on Friday mornings. This change made it possible to get later news in the paper and proved successful.

Spurred on by the hope of making the Maroon & White staff the following fall, the "Cubs" practiced writing, make up, and general business problems under the leadership of Miss Helen Conover. This year they published an edition of the Maroon & White. They also helped to distribute the paper every Monday morning, to all homerooms. To be a Cub, one must have had a high scholastic standing and an active interest in journalism. As positions opened on the staff, those who qualified moved on the main staff.

The creation of interest in retailing, and the fostering of good fellowship, friendliness, and cooperation between students, the community, and the employers was the purpose of Distributive Education Club. Fundamentals of selling and actual store experience were offered to students of Distributive Education classes, to keep up with the trend of so many students holding part-time jobs. The organization also had a special course before the Christmas holidays for those people interested in working in the stores at that time. At basketball games Distributive Ed. students checked coats. Most of this money was used on future projects. Fifteen students and

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Newton, advisers of the group, attended the annual state convention held in Springfield, Illinois. The Danville Chapter was one of the host chapters and conducted the presentation of charters to new members, as well as presenting a skit and a chapter display. Donald Cunningham was elected a State Director of the Illinois Association of Future Distributors at this state convention.

Local club officers were president Pat Hayman, vice-president Harvey Kerr, secretary-treasurer Tom Hundley, and reporter Peggy Wimsett. Mr. Newton taught the classes as well as acting as adviser of the group.

Our 1950 track team came in with a good record of wins last season, with sprinter Bobby Nield leading forth the team to victory. The cindermen brought in third place wins at the Urbana Open and at the Paris Relays. After placing fifth in the Normal Relays, Danville lost to Champaign in a dual meet. Little Bobby Nield gave downstate coaches a headache in the dual meet by running the 100 yard dash in 9.8, bettering his record of 10.2. The track men placed fourth at the Mattoon Relays. In the Urbana Relays the Maroons rallied to a third place position with 36 points. Danville edged out Champaign in the District meet by one-third of a point to win third place.

Senior Class Play

"Spring Journey" was a riotously funny high school comedy, warm and fast-moving, with a strong underlying theme of patriotism and good citizenship.

Larry Bennett, prize debater of his home state and planning to enter politics, came to Washington on a sightseeing trip with other members of the senior class. Their teacher and chaperone, Lucy Clark, was engaged to a young Congressman, Ken Taylor.

It happens that Taylor was sponsoring a bill in the House to provide scholarship loans to young people wanting to enter the government but unable to finance their education. And when he met Larry, he realized that the boy was exactly the kind who would benefit under its terms. He asked the excited Larry to have lunch with some of his colleagues who were on the fence about the bill, but Larry, normally a modest, friendly boy, had meanwhile met the teen-age daughter of a senator. Griselda, who considered herself an "important Washington figure," flattered Larry out of his sense of proportion, and he made a decidedly unfortunate impression on the Congressmen. The papers picked up the story of a high-school boy advising Congress, and Larry, in a hilarious scene, gave an absurdly pompous interview to the press, then managed to jam the legislative machinery when he participated, uninvited, in a Senatorial debate.

Before the boy came to his senses, the Scholarship Loan Bill was jeopardized, Taylor's re-election threatened, and the young congressman's romance with Lucy almost wrecked. But Larry's high school sweetheart, Babs Davis, who never stopped believing in him, saved the day in a surprise ending that involved the intervention of the President.

L. Kronmiller, M. Carson, G. Engle, J. Fox, G. Martin, Capt.

Danville's '50 golf team, coached by Norris Patterson, didn't have a very successful season, being rained out of several meets, along with tough competition. The boys won 2 and lost 4 and tied one of their 7 meets. The linksmen, captained by Max Carson, tied one up with Garfield, then came back to defeat them later in the season. They whipped Urbana 14½ to ½ but were taken by Bloomington 11½ to 4½.

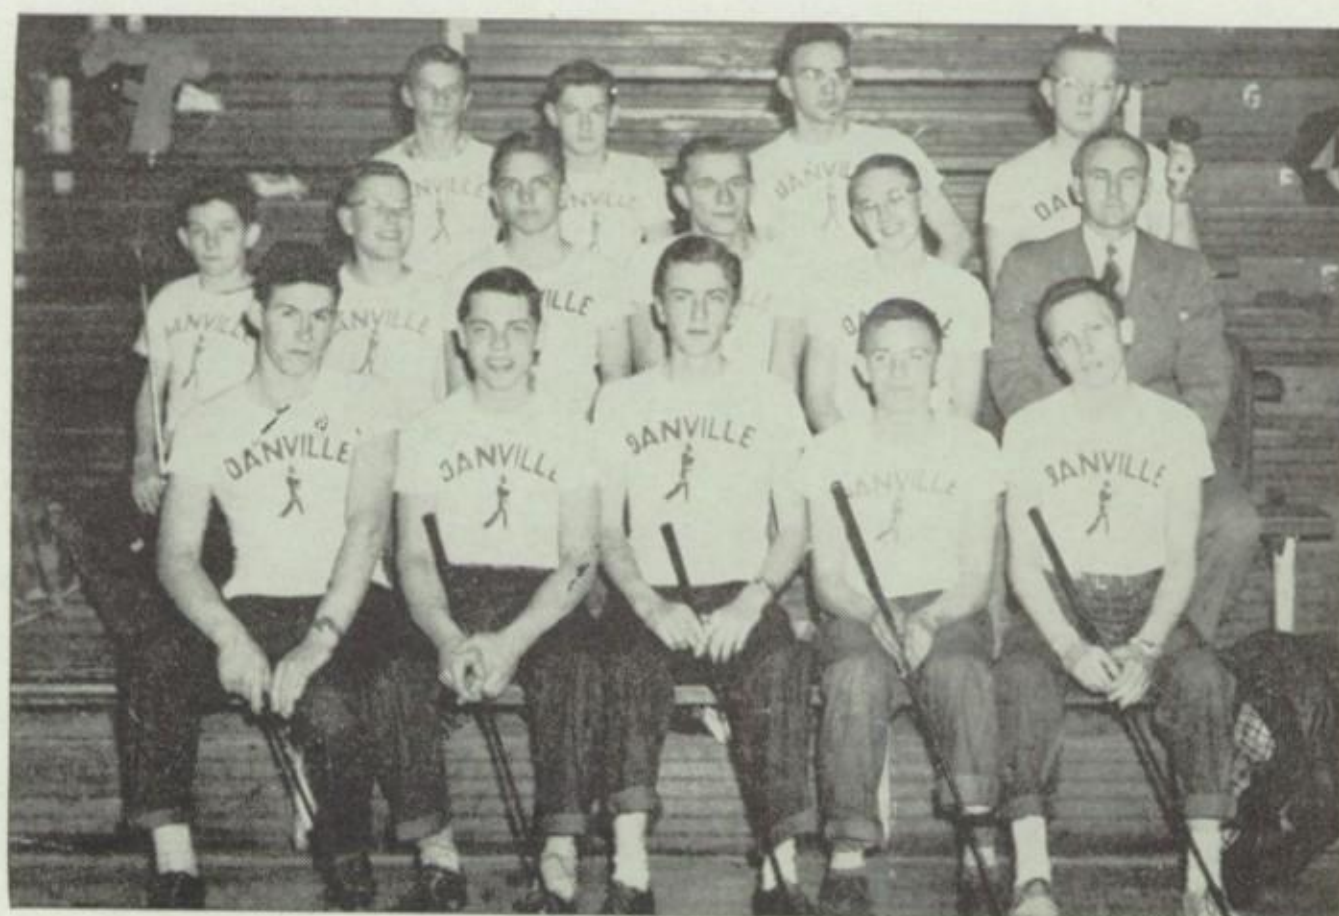

In the spring of '51 the squad was under a new coach, Ralph Wagner and with several veterans looked forward to a more successful season under the leadership of Capt. George Martin.

First Row: L. Lenfesty, D. Schultz, J. Dowling, A. Vance, L. Mervis, S. Brown, E. Laury, B. Muirhead.

Second Row: J. Guthrie, B. Bromley, B. Wolcott, J. Stitt, J. Peters, J. Cramer, T. Johnson, G. Day, L. Hageman.

Third Row: Coach W. Christy, G. Michaelson, D. Gaumer, W. Quick, D. Stuart, W. Jackowski, B. Skelton, G. Loercher, B. Muirhead, J. Korngiebel, T. Courtney.

The 1950 baseball team captained by Bill Muirhead batted away for a fairly successful season to win 15 games and lose only 7. In the beginning of the season only the pitching held the team up. In the first game Danville collected only three hits while winning 4 to 2. But as the season progressed the hitting also progressed and instead of solely depending on the pitching the team could depend more on runs and began to overpower their opponents. By the end of the season nearly all the regulars were hitting well over .300. One highlight of the season was the upset of powerful Peoria Central, who had won eight straight games going into the doubleheader at Danville. Danville won both games, the first by 2 to 1, and the second by 7 to 6. Another proud victory was marked up when the Maroons played Garfield of Terre Haute. Terre Haute had won 2 to 1 at home but when they came to Danville, John Cramer pitched a no-hit, no-run game against them and Danville won 25 to 0! This game put confidence in the team and the Christymen went ahead to win 8 straight games. Danville won the district, beating Loda 13 to 0, Fisher 18 to 0, Champaign 19 to 3, and Hoopes-ton 13 to 4. The Maroons scored 63 runs to their opponents' 7 during the tournament. Danville then entered the sectional at Bloomington and defeated Toluca 14 to 1 for the right to go to the finals against Bloomington. In the Bloomington game it appeared that Danville had the title. They jumped off to 6 to 0 lead early in the game, but three Bloomington home runs cut this in half, and in the last half of the 8th inning they scored 6 more runs. In the 9th inning Danville's rally fell short by one run, thus losing 9 to 8. During the season the Maroons scored a total of 211 runs to their opponents' 78.

'50 Honors

Recognition was given to those worthy students who had maintained a high scholastic average, during their high school career on the Honors Day assemblies last spring. Seniors with an average of 90 or above became members of Honor Society.

Scholastic awards in English, mathematics, social science, Latin, and science were given, based on averages of 90 or above for three, four, or five years.

Those students in the upper one-third of the class, who were active in Dramatic Club, and had a speaking part in at least one major production were eligible for the highest award in Dramatics—Thespian.

Outstanding workers from either of the school publications whose averages were in the upper third were selected to become members of Quill and Scroll, honorary journalistic society.

Miss Sandeson, Dick Smith

"Apprentices we are today,
But masters we will be,
May God above show us the way
And guide our ship at sea."

Thus read the song of our class of '51, a song which will keep coming back to us as time goes by. Yes, as time goes by we seniors will keep with us always a memory of these last four years, the best years of our life. How green were we as freshmen! How excited were we upon going to our first Prom! The sports, activities, dances, and our first experiences in "growing up." Dick Leverenz led us as Freshmen, Dick Smith as Sophs. Our Junior year we chose Bob Clem; as Seniors we chose Dick Smith. Bob Clem was vice-president; Sandra Mergette was secretary; historian was Tom Dye. The following chairmen wound up our list of senior class officers: social, Luella Marana; program, Royal Senn; invitation, Alice Chezem; gift, Bill Coates; color, Donna McKinzie; and motto, Audree McMillan. Elected to represent the class in Student Council were Estella Cornett, Fay Norbut and Jim Nichols.

We wish to express deep appreciation to our class adviser, Miss Ruth Sandeson, for her helpfulness and kindly guidance through this year.

UNDER SAILS OF BROWN AND IVORY

Lyrics By BETTY GIBSON

Music By CAROLYN POUND and CAROLYN HINTON

As we the class of '51
Look out upon the sea,
We spy the golden rising sun
And hearken to its plea,
So we must leave our Danville High
So full of memories,
And venture forth where earth meets sky
And aid democracy.

Our sails of brown and ivory
Will carry us along

Through stormy gale and treachery,
And guide us from all wrong,
We're men and women brave and free
With faith in God and man,
And sailing on for victory
Throughout our glorious land.

Apprentices we are today,
But masters we will be,
May God above show us the way
And guide our ship at sea.

Royal Senn, Donna Richison

Donna Richison and Royal Senn have had bestowed upon them the highest honor a senior can have. Donna and Royal were chosen best boy and girl citizens of the class of '51.

Eligibility for this honorable award called for a scholastic standing in the upper one-fourth of their class. Also, the candidate must have had these characteristics: patriotism, dependability, service, and leadership. The best girl citizen contest was sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution and was nation-wide. In D.H.S., Girls' Club also presented the girl with a check for $50 to further her education. The best boy citizen was sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and also received $50.

Donna's rank was among the highest in the class scholastically; she has not missed the honor roll since her entrance to D.H.S. from Daniel Grade School; surely this was proof that brains and personality will mix. She has been an enthusiastic participant in all types of school activities. She was Membership Chairman of Y-Teens her junior year, and led the club as president her senior year. Serving on Student Council both years, she was made secretary her senior year. In her senior year she joined the Medley staff as School Editor.

Royal came to D.H.S. from Washington Grade School; he kept himself very busy, too. Besides playing in the Senior Band, he was a member of Pep Club and was Circulation Manager of the Maroon & White. He was President of the local Hi-Y, and treasurer of the District Hi-Y. Royal was also Program Chairman of the Senior Class.
